Second Legacy Workshop

So, out of experience came the need to apply the spirit of our steps to our lives of working and living together.

These were the forces that generated the

Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous

Tradition 3

Wednesday 27th June 6pm

Mirambeena Community Centre

19 Martha Mews, Lavington

For Details contact your

General Service Representative GSR

Tradition 3: Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought AA membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an AA group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.

RAPID FIRE

Think on your feet and share from the heart!

A special "Rapid Fire" format on this night at the Working With Others Glen Waverley Meeting.

Each member called on to share, is given a surprise topic question relating to the AA 12 Step Program. The member then has 1½ minutes to share their experience, strength and hope on that topic question.
